VOLUNTOWN The snowfall was 12 to 14 inches Sunday, the 20th. Monday morning the snow shovel brigade were out in force clearing paths. The Briggs Manufacturing Co. plow was out early and made it possible for the help to reach their work. The mills, schools and stores were all doing business as usual Monday. William Bit-good of Pachaug with a four-horse snowplough opened up the road between this town and Jewett City, so that the mall carrier could make the usual afternoon run, arriving at the local office at about 4.26. In spite of the storm, there was a good attendance at the 19.20 mass at St. Thomas' church. The Lenten devotion in the evening was omitted owing to Court Liberty No. 132, F of A. held . regular meeting on Monday evening. A check for $200 was received from the supreme court as the death benefit of Brother Arthur Robertson who died recently in Jewett City and was ordered paid to the beneficiaries. The amuse-ment committee announced plans for a whist and social.
